

Dec 2020 Rev: 2.5

Limited Lifetime Warranty

FSI warrants that its acoustical underlayment products will conform to the published product specifications, subject to manufacturing tolerances, will be merchantable for the ordinary purposes for which such goods are used and will be free of defects in material and workmanship at the time of shipment.

FSI further warrants that it will replace any FSI defective acoustical underlayment and/or will reimburse purchaser the original purchase price of such underlayment should the material fall outside of the published manufactures specifications. This warranty will only be in effect if approved adhesives are used and installed in compliance with the latest version of the installation instructions, revision 2.5.

This commercial warranty gives the purchaser specific legal rights and the purchaser may also have other rights, which vary from state to state or province to province. This commercial warranty will be effective only if FSI acoustical underlayment is installed and maintained properly in full compliance with the installation instructions, recommendations and specifications revision 2.5.
